

Web Developer

We're looking for a Web Developer preferably with experience of working for a marketing agency.

This is a fantastic opportunity to join Clevercherry with a great portfolio of both new and longstanding clients across various sectors.

Department - Digital

Team

- Head of Project Management
- Lead Developer
- Senior Front-End Creative
- Front-End Creative
- Senior Back-End Developer
- Junior Back-End Developer

Main Responsibilities

- Full ownership of WordPress development
- Maintaining and creating new Plugins
- API creations and integrations
- Payment portal integrations
- eCommerce systems (custom product management, bespoke to each client)
- Reporting and analytics dashboards (either with custom data or integrations with third party tools such as Google Analytics)
- Linux command line for project setup and deployment
- Assisting the frontend team with project setup and bug fixes

Technologies Used

- WordPress v5.5
- Laravel v5.5
- PHP v7.3
- MySQL
- jQuery
- Git

Desirable Skills

Although not essential if you are able to demonstrate skills in the following would be a huge benefit:

- Bootstrap
- SASS
- NPM
- JavaScript
- Adobe Suite

22 Gas Street,
Birmingham B1 2JT
0121 236 1060
clevercherry.com

Main Relationships

Main points of contact will be with Head of Project Management and the Lead Developer. The Web Developer will be the Subject Matter Expert for all WordPress projects and will be largely autonomous when it comes to decisions around coding practices and design patterns. During any given project an Account Manager will be assigned to manage the delivery and this person will become the primary contact for the Web Developer throughout the duration of the project.

What's on Offer

- Competitive Salary DOE
- Flexible working environment
- Pension Scheme with 4% contributions
- Annual company day and social events
- We have our very own in-house, fully stocked bar
- Vibrant and friendly office culture
- Posh drinks and good coffee on tap

This is a unique opportunity to be part of a creative and buzzing driven agency. Working hours will be Monday to Friday 09:00 – 17:30 with an hour for lunch.